My Plans are to put particular photographs in the Mental Health Recovery Residence. All the photos would be printed on aluminum, with the possible exception of the manhole covers if we were to decide to use them. All would have secure attachment to the walls with Z Bar installation.

Our surrounds can nourish us. By seeing images of the elements in nature we can feel connections, and our imagination can be free to explore possibilities. I chose photos of the elements in nature to calm and comfort, or to promote extending ourselves. The abstract ones leave more to the imagination and feelings. All photos are mounted on aluminum, this substance creates a visual shift of the picture as you walk by.

I welcome the opportunity to collaborate and work with the team that will oversee and work in this place of recovery. - Carol Langstaff
