   Notifications will be sent to this address.
5. Phone number
6. Street address
7. City
8. State
   Just enter the two-letter abbreviation (e.g., VT).
9. ZIP
10. County (A drop-down list will provide options.)
11. Website (optional)
12. I am applying as a(n):
    - group
    - individual
If you are applying on behalf of an artist’s group, you will answer the following questions:
12.1. Group’s name
12.2. List the other members of the group. (2,000 characters, including spaces, punctuation, and individual letters)

Project Information
1. Describe your project in one sentence. “Grant funds will be used to...” (80 characters maximum)
   Be brief. This is the language for your contract (if you receive a grant). You’ll have a chance to describe the project in detail in the rest of the application. Click here to see previous grantees for examples.

2. Enter the amount of your grant request.
   You may apply for any amount up to $5,000.
Project Information (continued)

3. Project start date

Must begin after September 1, 2023. If this is a multi-year project, only enter the part of the project timeline that the grant funding will cover.

4. Project end date

Must end before August 31, 2024. If this is a multi-year project, only enter the part of the project timeline that the grant funding will cover.

5. Personal artistic discipline You’ll select from the following list:
   - crafts
   - literary arts
   - media & design arts
   - multidisciplinary arts
   - performing arts (includes music)
   - visual arts
   - other

5.1 If you select other, provide a brief discipline description. (80 characters maximum)

6. Artistic discipline that best describes your project (A drop-down list will provide options.)

   The project discipline can be different (or the same) from your personal artistic discipline. This answer will help us identify reviewers who have expertise relevant to your proposed project. If your project involves more than one discipline, please select multidisciplinary arts and continue to the next question.

   6.1. What discipline is most critical to understanding your project?
   You’ll select a second discipline, too.

   6.2. What other discipline is most critical to understanding your project?

Written Narrative

You may choose to answer the narrative questions by either writing your answers or by recording your answers as audio or video files. If you would like to answer using audio or video files, answer question #7 and move to the next section for Recorded Narrative.

1. Tell us about your project. Include what the resulting work will be. (3,000 characters, including spaces, punctuation, and individual letters)

2. How will your project unfold? Provide an estimated timeline for the project. (2,000 characters, including spaces, punctuation, and individual letters)

   These details will help the review team envision and understand how you intend to begin, create, and complete your proposed project.

3. Tell us about the art form and the artistic process. What is the medium and your technique? What experiences have you had, or preparations have you made that will shape the work and/or this project? (3,000 characters, including spaces, punctuation, and individual letters)
Written Narrative (continued)

4. Describe your goals and/or aspirations for this work and why it is an important project. (3,000 characters, including spaces, punctuation, and individual letters)

Does the proposed work reveal something about the world by communicating unique perspective(s) or by inviting the viewer, reader, or audience to question, discover, and/or explore new ideas?

5. How will an audience connect to, or experience, the work? (2,000 characters, including spaces, punctuation, and individual letters)

Who might your audience be and how will you reach them? Include any plans you may have for exhibitions, performances, publications, etc. If you have interest from publishers, curators, presenters, etc. be sure to detail that here as well. Also consider how the work might engage an audience emotionally, intellectually, and/or spiritually.

6. If collaborating with other individuals, list their role here and describe why they are important to your project. (2,000 characters, including spaces, punctuation, and individual letters)

If you are not collaborating with other individuals, you may skip this question.

7. I have answered all the narrative questions (through either written answers or recorded answers).

Recorded Narrative

You may choose to answer the narrative questions by uploading audio or video recordings of your answers or by answering the questions in writing on the previous page for Written Narrative. If you have already answered these questions on the Written Narrative page, answer question #7 and skip the rest of the section.

See the first question for recording instructions. Each recording should be no longer than three minutes and no larger than 10 MB.

1. Tell us about your project. Include what the resulting work will be.

Recording instructions: Keep the recordings simple and to the point. Please do not include edits of your work samples or special effects. The production quality of recordings will not be considered in your review. Just make sure we can hear and understand you and keep the editing and postproduction embellishments to a minimum. For videos, a neutral background is suggested.

2. How will the project unfold? Provide an estimated timeline for the project. These details will help the review team envision and understand how you intend to begin, create, and complete your proposed project.

3. Tell us about the art form and the artistic process. What is the medium and your technique? What experiences have you had, or preparations have you made that will shape the work and/or this project?

4. Describe your goals and/or aspirations for this work and why it is an important project. Does the proposed work reveal something about the world by communicating unique perspective(s) or by inviting the viewer, reader, or audience to question, discover, and/or explore new ideas?
5. How will an audience connect to, or experience, the work?
Who might your audience be and how will you reach them? Include any plans you may have for exhibitions, performances, publications, etc. If you have interest from publishers, curators, presenters, etc. be sure to detail that here as well. Also consider how the work might engage an audience emotionally, intellectually, and/or spiritually.

6. If collaborating with other individuals, list their role here and describe why they are important to your project.
If you are not collaborating with other individuals, you may skip this question.

7. I have answered all the narrative questions (through either written answers or recorded answers).

Project Budget
List all the expenses and income related to your project. Make sure your budget is concise, reasonable, and balanced. Total expenses should equal your total income. (Example: total expenses = $7,500 and total income = $7,500). If you are working with other artists or assistants, consider how you are compensating them, and whether it is equitable compensation for their time.

1. EXPENSES
List all the expenses related to this project. If you need additional rows, click on the “+ Add a row” text. Examples of types of expenses include the artist’s time, materials, etc.

When listing your time creating the work, identify what this will involve (rather than a breakdown of the actual hours). For example, you might include ideation, research, creating drafts, and making the work.

Click here to see Building a Budget for more guidance.

Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>type of expense</th>
<th>expense amount</th>
<th>explanation (optional)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>artist’s time</td>
<td>$5,000</td>
<td>My time creating the work will include researching different locations, conducting interviews, rehearsing, shooting, and editing video.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>location fee</td>
<td>$2,000</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TOTAL</td>
<td>$7,000</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. What is the total of your expenses?
Total all the expense amounts you’ve just detailed in question #1 above.

3. INCOME
List how you plan to cover the expenses. In addition to the award amount, sources of income could include personal savings, donations, crowdfunding, other grants, etc. Click on the “+ Add a row” text for additional rows.
Project Budget (continued)

4. What is the total of your income?
Total all the income amounts you’ve just detailed in question #3 above.

5. The grant will pay for which specific expense(s) in the project budget? (characters, including spaces, punctuation, and individual letters)

Attachments & Portfolio

Attachments
1. Résumé (optional)
Providing a résumé can support your project description and help the review team further understand your work, but it is not required. A résumé presents your background and skills and will usually contain information about past presentations, publications, or exhibitions of or about your work. It might also include your educational background if relevant.

Portfolio/Work Samples
Artistic excellence makes up the majority (60%) of the weight of this application. We strongly recommend carefully reviewing “Tips for Submitting Work Samples”. Click here to view the tips.

Upload up to ten (10) media samples that demonstrate the quality of your work and that help reviewers understand your proposal. Use the additional fields to further explain the media sample to the reviewers. Why is this media sample important? How does it relate to your proposed project? If uploading a literary sample, detail which page, section, or passage is important to understanding your work or the proposed work and why. Do the same for music/video files.

Note that a mock-up of the proposed work, including a sketch, excerpt, clip, etc. helps reviewers better understand what the resulting work will be.

For literary media samples: Upload no more than fifteen (15) pages total. Samples should be double-spaced using no smaller than eleven-point font in Arial, Courier, or Times. You may include multiple writing samples in one PDF. For poets, line spacing may be different to accommodate formatting. Include examples of the type of writing you propose to create. Show your plotline; provide examples of dialogue; or whatever is important to understanding and/or demonstrating your writing skill and concept.

Allowed media types and sizes:
- Images (up to 5MB per file)
- Video (up to 250 MB per file)
- Audio (up to 30 MB per file)
- PDFs (up to 10 MB per file)
- Links to YouTube, Vimeo, SoundCloud, and Sketchfab

Note that linked media items must be public, and the links should be to individual files rather than sets, playlists, or collections.
(Optional) People’s Choice Award
If you would like your proposal to also be considered for a People’s Choice Award, be sure to check “yes” below and complete this section. Note that the information provided here will be the only information featured for the public to view and has been simplified for this purpose. Panelists will not see this section.

1. In addition to the traditional Creation Grant award, would you also like to be considered for the People’s Choice Award?
